The following corrections should be made to the remarks of the Delegate of the United Kingdom:

The last paragraph on the page should be amended to read:

"Mr. SHACKLE (United Kingdom): Mr. Chairman, it is one thing to insert a provision allowing postal voting but it is quite another to put in a definite rule which would prevent its use, and that is, in fact, what the text of paragraph 2 would do. Of course, it may be that the right course is to provide that the Executive Board shall be in permanent Session in which case it is an idea to be considered rather carefully before we adopt it."

16th and

17th lines: delete the phrase "surely that is the right method".
