CONTRACTING PARTIES

The Territorial Application of the General Agreement

A PROVISIONAL LIST of Territories
to which the Agreement is applied

ADDENDUM

Document GATT/CP/108 contains a comprehensive list of territories to which it is presumed the agreement is being applied by the contracting parties. It also contains a request to each contracting party to give careful scrutiny to the relevant portions of the document and to submit any alterations that might be required.

To date the governments of the countries named below have requested that the entries concerning them should read as indicated. It would be appreciated if other governments would notify the Secretariat of their approval of the relevant text - or submit alterations - by 1 September 1951, in order that a revised list may be issued prior to the opening of the Sixth Session.
