GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

CONTRACTING PARTIES
Twenty-Second Session

Original: English

SOUTH AFRICA/RHODESIA TRADE RELATIONS

The Governments of South Africa and Rhodesia have transmitted for the information of the CONTRACTING PARTIES the text of a trade agreement concluded on 30 November 1964, as follows:

TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF SOUTHERN RHODESIA

The Government of the Republic of South Africa and the Government of Southern Rhodesia, recognizing that it is desirable that trade between their respective countries should be as free and uninterrupted as possible and being desirous of continuing and improving the traditional trading relations between them, have agreed as follows:

Article 1

In this Agreement, unless inconsistent with the context

"Republic" means the Republic of South Africa and the territory of South West Africa;

"Rhodesia" means Southern Rhodesia;

"party" means a party to this Agreement, namely, the Government of the Republic or the Government of Rhodesia;

"certificate" means a document describing goods specified in Parts IV, V, VI and VII of Annex B, stating their quantity and value, and signed or countersigned by or on behalf of the Secretary for Trade, Industry and Development of the Government of Rhodesia;

"Column C rate" means the rate of duty applicable to the goods concerned from time to time, in terms of Column C of Part II of the Customs Tariff of Rhodesia;

"Column D rate" means the rate of duty applicable to the goods concerned, from time to time, in terms of Column D of Part II of the Customs Tariff of Rhodesia;

"duty" means any duty, other than a dumping duty or a countervailing duty, payable in the country of either party on goods imported into that country;

"licence" means a licence or permit, issued in writing by or on behalf of a party, giving conditional or unconditional authority to import goods into or export goods from the country of that party;

"most-favoured-nation rate" means the most-favoured-nation rate of duty applicable to the goods concerned, from time to time, in terms of the Customs Tariff of the Republic;

"produced", in relation to goods, includes grown or manufactured;

"rate of duty" includes free of duty;

"Rhodesian content", in relation to manufactured goods, means that portion of the factory or works cost of such goods which is represented by the cost of labour performed in Rhodesia or of the materials produced and labour performed in Rhodesia;

"%" means per cent ad valorem;

and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.

Article 2

Except where otherwise provided, the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to goods produced in the country of either party and entered for consumption in the country of the other party on and after the date of coming into operation of this Agreement.

Article 3

Goods produced in the country of one party and specified in Annex A shall not be imported into the country of the other party, except under import licence. When such goods are so imported, they shall, in accordance with the provisions of that Annex, be admitted at the rate of duty specified in that Annex.

Article 4

A total quantity of 2,000,000 pounds in weight of flue-cured Virginia-type leaf tobacco, sold on the tobacco auction floors in Rhodesia shall be admitted into the Republic free of duty during each calendar year.

Article 5

1. Subject to the provisions of this Article and the conditions set out in Annex B, goods produced in Rhodesia and specified in that Annex shall be admitted into the Republic at the rate of duty specified for such goods in that Annex:

Provided that, after not less than twelve months from the date of commencement of this Agreement, or when the manufacture of cellulosic staple fibre has commenced on a commercial scale in the Republic, whichever shall be the later the Government of the Republic, after consultation with the Government of Rhodesia, may exclude textiles and clothing containing not less than 25 per cent by weight of such fibre from the concessions provided in Annex B.

2. Goods produced in Rhodesia and specified in Parts IV, V, VI and VII of Annex B shall not be admitted into the Republic at the rates of duty provided in those Parts before 1 January 1965, and shall not be so admitted unless a certificate is produced to the authorities in the Republic in which a value not less than the value of duty purposes, and a quantity not less than the quantity, of the goods concerned, is specified.

3. In calculating a period of time mentioned in Parts IV, V, VI and VII of Annex B, the first such period shall begin on 1 January 1965, and each subsequent period shall begin on the day following that on which the preceding period ends.

Article 6

1. With the exception of goods for which another rate of duty is provided in Article 3 or paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, goods produced in the Republic shall be admitted into Rhodesia at the Column C rate.

2. Goods produced in the Republic and specified in Annex C shall be admitted at the rate of duty specified in that Annex, subject to the conditions set out therein.

3. When piece-goods produced in the Republic and specified in item 76 of Part II of the Customs Tariff of Rhodesia

(a) are entered under rebate granted, in terms of the customs and excise laws of Rhodesia, for the clothing manufacturing industry; and

(b) are used in accordance with the terms of and for the purpose specified in the relevant rebate provisions of the customs and excise laws of Rhodesia;

such piece-goods shall be admitted at the rebated Column D rate.

Article 7

Rough and uncut diamonds produced in the Republic and exported to Rhodesia shall be free of export duty if certified as being for industrial use in Rhodesia by an official of the Government of Rhodesia.

Article 8

Subject to such other conditions as are provided elsewhere in this Agreement, manufactured goods shall be deemed not to fall within the terms of this Agreement

- (a) in the case of clothing manufactured in Rhodesia and specified in Parts III and IV of Annex B, unless the Rhodesian content of such clothing is not less than 20 per cent and all the operations such as cutting and sewing required to manufacture such clothing from piece-goods have been performed in Rhodesia; and
- (b) in the case of other goods manufactured in Rhodesia, unless the last process in the manufacture of such goods has taken place in Rhodesia and the Rhodesian content of such goods is not less than 25 per cent; and
- (c) in the case of goods manufactured in the Republic, unless the last process of manufacture has been performed in the Republic and they
 - (i) contain not less than such proportion of the material and labour or of the material or labour of the Republic; and
 - (ii) have been subjected to such process of manufacture in the Republic;

as may be determined from time to time, for the purpose of the rebates provided in the Customs Tariff of Rhodesia for goods manufactured in the countries specified in paragraph 1 of Part III of that Tariff.

Article 9

1. A party may impose dumping duties on goods produced in the country of the other party.
2. A party may impose countervailing duties to offset subsidies granted, directly or indirectly, in respect of goods exported from the country of the other party.
3. A party, when requested by the other party to assist in the investigation of an allegation of dumping, shall provide all possible assistance in such investigation.

Article 10

If a party introduces a duty of excise or surtax applicable only to goods produced in its country or increases a duty of excise or surtax already imposed only on goods produced in its country, it may simultaneously levy on similar goods, produced in the country of the other party, a duty equivalent to the new or increased duty of excise or surtax.

Article 11

The parties agree to adopt, as far as possible, similar customs measures and procedures to encourage tourism.

Article 12

Except as provided elsewhere in this Agreement, quantitative import and export restrictions other than those in force at the date of commencement of this Agreement shall not be imposed upon the movement between the countries of the parties of goods produced in those countries:

Provided that after consultation between the parties, a party may impose

- (a) import restrictions on agricultural or fisheries products, or on products which can be directly substituted therefor, necessary to the enforcement of governmental measures which operate
 - (i) to restrict the quantities of the like domestic product permitted to be marketed or produced; or
 - (ii) to remove a temporary surplus of the like domestic product; and
- (b) export restrictions temporarily applied to prevent or relieve critical shortages of foodstuffs or other products essential to the exporting party; and
- (c) import and export restrictions necessary to the application of standards or regulations for the classification, grading or marketing of commodities; and
- (d) import and export restrictions undertaken in pursuance of obligations under any international trade or commodity agreement; and
- (e) import and export restrictions necessary for the better administration of this Agreement or designed to achieve its objectives.

Article 13

The parties shall make such regulations or other legal provision as may be necessary to give effect to this Agreement and for the proper administration of its provisions

Article 14

The parties, having regard to the objectives of this Agreement and recognizing that difficulties or problems may arise as a result of the operation of the Agreement, agree that

- (a) a party which proposes to take or authorize action which it considers may affect any benefit accruing to the other party under this Agreement shall, whenever possible, consult in advance with, and give sympathetic consideration to any representations by, or proposals received from that other party; and
- (b) a party shall be free at all times to approach the other party for consultations with a view to finding ways and means to solve any difficulty or problem in the operation of this Agreement; and
- (c) apart from any discussion which may take place under (a) and (b) above, the parties shall meet at intervals not exceeding fifteen months for formal discussion of the operation of this Agreement.

Article 15

This Agreement shall come into operation on 1 December 1964 and shall remain in operation until 31 December 1969 and, unless notice of termination is given by one party to the other party twelve months before the expiry of that period, it shall thereafter remain in force until the expiry of twelve months from the date on which notice of termination is given.

On the coming into operation of this Agreement, the provisions of all former agreements relating to trade between the countries of the parties shall cease to have force or effect.

Done at Salisbury in duplicate, in English and Afrikaans texts, each of which shall be of equal authenticity, this thirtieth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.
