ARTICLE XIX

Protection afforded to the Community Market for Foundry Pig-Iron

The following communication, dated 19 February 1971, has been received from the Commission of the European Communities.

Measures affording protection to the Community market for foundry pig-iron, in pursuance of Article XIX of the General Agreement, were introduced on 1 January 1964.<sup>1</sup>

These measures, which were thereafter amended and several times extended<sup>2</sup>, lapsed on 31 December 1970.

As of that date, the European Communities have ceased invoking Article XIX.
